RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Graduate Research Assistant January 2024-Current
 Big Data for Social Justice Lab
 College of Social Work & College of Public Health, The Ohio State University
 Supervisor: Gia E. Barboza-Salerno, Ph. D.

- Examining social justice-related issues (e.g., gun violence, child welfare system, child abuse and neglect, school discipline) through the usage of big data and advanced statistical methodology.

Graduate Research Assistant August 2023-Current
 Trauma, Health, and Resilience In the midst of Violence Exposure (THRIVE) Lab
 College of Social Work, The Ohio State University
 Supervisor: Susan H. Yoon, Ph.D.

- Examining the short- and long-term effects of child maltreatment on child and adolescent development, with a particular focus on identifying factors and mechanisms that promote or hinder resilience after exposure to adversity and/or trauma.
- Ohio Citizen Review Project: Annual review and evaluation of an identified issue or concern raised about the child welfare system and making actionable and measurable recommendations to the state of Ohio on how to improve such issues.

Graduate Research Assistant August 2023-Current
 Child and Family Wellbeing Lab
 College of Social Work, The Ohio State University
 Supervisor: Joyce Y. Lee, Ph. D.

- Examining parental risk and protective factors of child maltreatment and leveraging positive father-child relationships in preventing child maltreatment early on.
- Examining individual, familial, and contextual factors associated with or contributing to promoting the health and wellbeing of children involved in the child welfare system.
- Understanding the role and effectiveness of judicial tools in reforming child welfare systems in the United States.
- Daddy REAdS with Me (DREAM) project: Pilot test of a community-based participatory virtual dialogic reading intervention for non-resident Black fathers and their preschoolers.
- Evaluation of the Ohio Sobriety, Treatment, And Reducing Trauma (START) project: Family peer mentor-based substance use treatment intervention for child welfare involved families.

Project Manager August 2022-August 2023
 Project: Trauma-Informed Programs and Practices for Schools (TIPPS)
 School of Social Work, University of Michigan

Supervisor: Todd I. Herrenkohl, Ph. D.

- Translating research-based trauma-informed framework into data-driven systemic evidence-based programs and practices for K12 schools.
- Development of TIPPS online modules focusing on trauma-informed school environment for training targeted at K-12 teachers on trauma-informed practice.

Project Director

May 2022-August 2023

Project: Evaluation of the Positive Early Childhood Education (PECE) program

School of Social Work, University of Michigan

Supervisor: Kathryn L. Maguire-Jack, Ph. D.

- Management of the evaluation of the PECE program in the state of Ohio involving:
 - Development of evaluation plan, interview protocol, quarterly evaluation reports
 - Qualitative data collection & analysis
 - Quantitative data collection & analysis

Graduate Lab Assistant

April 2022-April 2023

Project: Study of Adolescent Neural Development (SAND)

Translational & Developmental Neuroscience Lab

Department of Psychology, College of Literature, Science, and the Arts, University of Michigan

Supervisor: Christopher Monk, Ph. D.

- Examining the impact of disadvantaged social contexts on brain development, behavior, and psychiatric outcomes among children and adolescents.
- Conducting study visits for data collection involving:
 - Running Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) sessions
 - Conducting Structured Clinical Interview for Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders
 - Collecting biomarker data
 - Administrative roles

Graduate Research Assistant

May 2021-Current

Child Maltreatment Prevention (CMP) Lab

School of Social Work, University of Michigan

Supervisor: Kathryn L. Maguire-Jack, Ph. D.

- Examining the social contextual risk and protective impact of neighborhoods on child maltreatment.
- Conducting program evaluations of child maltreatment prevention strategies.
